

I am writing to oppose the Consumer Bankers Association's challenge to the Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law in a proceeding before the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). The CBA is attempting to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. I like my privacy and not being interrupted by unwanted, unnecessary and unsolicited calls. Please do not support this attempt to change the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law.

Angela Bergman, Mooresville, Indiana